

Every poor to get a permanent house: CM

Bhopal: Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav has said that water sustains all beings. Rivers enrich greenery. Realizing importance of water, the Jal-Ganga Samvardhan Abhiyan is going on and will conclude on Ganga Dussehra.

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav was addressing a public meeting at the Utkrisht Vidyalaya grounds in Multai in Betul on Saturday. Dr. Yadav performed bhoomi puja and inaugurated 1008 works worth Rs 347 crore in Betul district. The Chief Minister also distributed benefits of various government schemes. Union Minister of State DD Uike also addressed the gathering.

Industries will be launched in Betul

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav said that the people are ready to contribute to making India number one in the world under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The people have expressed their confidence in Prime Minister Modi in the Lok Sabha elections.

Dr. Yadav said that every poor person will have a permanent house. The state government is going to build 3 crore pucca houses to provide permanent houses to all eligible families. Har Ghar Jal and Har Nal Mein Jal campaigns are also going on. The state government is determined to provide tap water in all panchayats and gas stoves in every house.

Airstrips of districts to be used for pilot training

Dr. Yadav said that a helicopter service is being started for pilgrimage, initially, two Jyotirlingas, Omkareshwar and Mahakaleshwar are being connected. Training courses are being started for the youth to learn to operate helicopters and planes. The airstrips available in districts will be used for this.

Grant to cow shelters doubled

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav said that places where Lord Ram and Krishna stepped in the state, will be developed as a pilgrimage site. Tap-ti Dham will also be developed. He said that the mother cow is worshipped with deep respect. The state government will provide care to mother cows. The amount of grants meant for cow shelters has been doubled. The bonus on milk will start soon.

“Campaign to revitalize water sources should be a grand mission”

► Bhoomi puja of pond renovation work in Khunajhir Kalan village in Chhindwara

Bhopal: Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav has rallied citizens to join forces in a concerted effort to conserve, promote, and rejuvenate water sources. Addressing the citizens during the commencement of pond restoration in Khunajhir Kalan village, Chhindwara district, Dr. Yadav emphasized the significance of June 16th, marked as Ganga Dashami. He announced that the campaign would be commemorated in diverse ways leading up to Ganga Dashami. Stressing the indispensable role of water in life, he evoked poet Rahim's words, “Rahiman paani raakhiye, bin paani sab sun.”

Responding to the pleas of local representatives, he instructed the construction of a ghat along the pond's banks as part of its restoration. Chief Minister Dr. Yadav performed the bhoomi puja of the renovation work of the old pond and planted saplings on its banks.

Among those present on the occasion were Chhindwara MP Vivek Bunt Sahu, former ministers Deepak Saxena and Nana Bhau Mohod, former president of District Panchayat Smt. Kanta Thakur, Mayor Vikram Ahake, Leader of Opposition Nagar Palik Nigam Vijay Pandey, along with other officers, distinguished citizens, and villagers. It may be noted that on the instructions of Chief Minister Dr. Yadav, the Jal Ganga Samvardhan Abhiyan is being run by the state government from June 05 to 16 for the conservation, promotion, and renovation of water sources.

Under this campaign, various activities are being organized for water conservation and promotion. The renovation work of the pond which was constructed about 26-27 years ago includes, deepening, pitching, and repair work. This will be done through the MNREGA scheme and public participation at a cost of approximately Rs 6.30 lakh.

Addressing the gathering at the Dussehra ground, Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav pledged unwavering commitment to the comprehensive development of Chhindwara district. Acknowledging the sanctity of rivers like Kanhan, Pench, Kulbehra, Shakkar, and Dudhi in Chhindwara, Dr. Yadav announced plans for their enhancement, along with the rejuvenation of ponds and other water sources through the Jal Ganga Samvardhan Abhiyan.

Furthermore, he declared unrestricted access for farmers to utilize pond silt and affirmed the government's solidarity with water conservationists.

Bhojshala's survey report will be presented in High Court

► Excavation was done in northern part of Bhojshala

Chronicle Reporter, Dhar Preparations are being made to present Bhojshala's survey report in the Indore bench of Madhya Pradesh High Court. The High Court has fixed July 4 as the date of hearing in this case. In such a situation, the Archaeological Survey of India can present the survey report on July 2. For this, the details of the survey so far are being prepared.

Although it is not yet clear how far the survey has reached, it is understood that the ASI has collected a lot of evidence in the excavation, so that it can tell the High Court what was actually in Bhojshala.

On the other hand, on Friday, in the 85th day of survey, ASI filled the sanctum sanctorum of Bhojshala and closed the pits. The work of removing soil was done in the northern part and the antiquities kept there were shifted.

Claim of being an ancient Saraswati temple

It is noteworthy that a petition has been filed in the High Court on behalf of Bhojshala Mukti Yagna, claiming that Bhojshala is an ancient Saraswati temple. On this, the Indore Bench had ordered the ASI to conduct a survey and find out the real situation and had asked for a survey report. The survey was started from March 22. The time limit for the survey is set to June 27.

Kshipra Tirtha Parikrama will preserve and beautify spiritual sites: CM Yadav

► Dr. Yadav participated in Kshipra Tirtha Parikrama along with thousands of devotees

Bhopal: Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav has said that Maa Shipra Tirtha Parikrama is not just a pilgrimage; it will become a medium to increase, preserve and beautify the importance of archaeological, spiritual sites located on the banks of Shipra. Chief Minister Dr. Yadav was addressing the inauguration program of Maa Shipra Tirtha Parikrama at the holy Ram Ghat of Ujjain. A wonderful scene of religion, faith and belief was created on the occasion of the inauguration of Shipra Tirtha Parikrama at Ram Ghat of the holy river Mokshadayini Shipra in Ujjaini, the city of Mahakal, by Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav. Chief Minister Dr. Yadav worshipped the flag by performing the worship of Shipra at Ram Ghat and Aarti. Chief Minister Dr. Yadav inaugurated the Shipra Tirtha Parikrama by making the people present and the people of the state take a pledge of the Jal Abhishek Abhiyan dedicated to the conservation, promotion and revival of the rivers and water structures of the state.

Works of water and environment conservation continue

that works of water and environment conservation, river restoration and plantation are being done in the state under the Jal Ganga Sanvardhan Abhiyan. It is a matter of fortune to be born in India and it is a matter of good fortune to be born in Ujjain and its surroundings. 11 rivers are included in the holy river Shipra. 33 crore gods and goddesses reside on its banks. Avantika Tirtha is considered to be the biggest among all the pilgrimages. Shipra Tirtha Parikrama is not just a pilgrimage, it will become a medium to increase, preserve and beautify the importance of archaeological and spiritual sites located on the banks of Shipra.

Through the Vedic clock, the standard time of Ujjain will be restored as the time of the country and the world. Chief Minister Dr. Yadav wished happiness and prosperity to all the devotees doing the Parikrama and congratulated them for the success of the Parikrama.

Parikrama welcomed with flower shower

Chief Minister Dr. Yadav participated in the Shipra Tirtha Parikrama on foot along with the saint community, devotees and public representatives. There was immense enthusiasm among the people doing the Parikrama, the flags of the Parikrama were waving in the hands of the pilgrims. Various religious-social and voluntary organizations welcomed the Shipra Tirtha Parikrama by showering flowers on the Parikrama route.

Yatra will reach all the major religious places of Ujjain

The Shipra Tirtha Parikrama Yatra will start from Ramghat and reach Nrusinghghat, Anandeshwar Temple, Jagdish Temple, Gaughat, Jantar-Mantar, Varuneshwar Mahadev Temple (Sheetal Guest House) via Indore Road CHL Hospital, Prashantdharm Temple, Gurukul (Triveni) Navgrah Shani Temple and there will be lunch and rest here.

Protest to save greenery, threads tied on trees

Bhopal: Protesting against the sacrifice of 29 thousand trees in Bhopal, a protest was held for the third consecutive day to save greenery in the state capital. Environment lovers gathered in front of Nutan College on Friday evening. After raising slogans for 2 hours, they tied protective thread on trees and took a pledge to save them. On this occasion, environment expert Subhash C Pandey, former minister PC Sharma, councilor Yogendra Singh, Gaddu Chauhan, former councilor Amit Sharma and aware citizens of the city were present in large numbers. The special thing about the protest was that everyone including children reached there on the call on social media. Everyone collectively decided that this protest will continue. If the cutting of trees starts, then we will go to NGT. We have prepared the petition. BJP MLA Bhagwan Das Sabnani also joined the protest. He said that trees will not be cut, but will be planted. Earlier on Thursday, women became emotional after sticking to the trees at number 5 stop area. People who came to join the protest raised slogans.

Will go to Supreme Court to save trees: BHEL Union Deepak Gupta, who came to the protest, said that we have come here to protest against cutting 29 thousand trees. We will protest to save trees and will go to the Supreme Court.
